

Kingdom Come

Isaiah 9:1-7

Isaiah Prophecies About Christ's Coming Government

1 Nevertheless, there will be no more gloom for those who were in distress. In the past he humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the future he will honor Galilee of the Gentiles, by the way of the sea, along the Jordan—

2 The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned.

3 You have enlarged the nation and increased their joy; they rejoice before you as people rejoice at the harvest, as men rejoice when dividing the plunder.

4 For as in the day of Midian's defeat, you have shattered the yoke that burdens them, the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor.

5 Every warrior's boot used in battle and every garment rolled in blood will be destined for burning, will be fuel for the fire.

6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders.

And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end.

He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever.

The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

Matthew 4:12-16

Jesus Arrives as Prophesied

12 When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, he returned to Galilee. 13 Leaving Nazareth, Jesus went and lived in Capernaum, which was by the lake in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali— 14 to fulfill what was said through the prophet Isaiah:

15 "Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, along the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles— 16 the people living in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned."

Jesus will be Light in the land

▼ In a land of shadows

1 Nevertheless, there will be no more gloom for those who were in distress. In the past he humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, — 2 — the land of the shadow of death

▼ A Light will shine

1 but in the future he will honor Galilee of the Gentiles, by the way of the sea, along the Jordan— 2 The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned.

Jesus will be the Liberator

▼ He will break bars and fetters

4 For as in the day of Midian's defeat, you have shattered the yoke that burdens them, the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor.

▼ He will bring freedom and festivity

3 You have enlarged the nation and increased their joy; they rejoice before you as people rejoice at the harvest, as men rejoice when dividing the plunder.

▼ He will burn the bloody battle boots in the fire

5 Every warrior's boot used in battle and every garment rolled in blood will be destined for burning, will be fuel for the fire.

Jesus will be the lasting Lord

▼ He will arrive as a little Kid

6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders.

▼ He will arise as a lofty and loving King

6 And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

▼ He will advance a lasting kingdom

7 Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

1. Surrender the government of your life to Jesus!
2. Submit the griefs and groanings of your life to Jesus!
3. Send the gratitude and glory of your life to Jesus!
4. Spend the next gazillion years of your life with Jesus!
